

CM1 Furniture Pad/Prep Skills Test

Name: _____

Date: _____

Directions: All answer options are written in bold below each question. Circle the correct answer. Make sure to put your name and date on the test.

1. _____ is essential for the proper protection of the furniture.

Purchasing, Padding, Prevention

2. _____ are the main size of pad that we use. They are used on medium and large items

Half Sized Furniture Pads, Quarter Sized Furniture Pads, Full Sized Furniture Pads

3. _____ are similar to a full size pad but are approximately 2/3 the size and not as thick. They are used on most small and medium sized furniture.

Warehouse Pads, Brick House Pads, New House Pads

4. _____ available in two sizes and are made of burlap and felt backing. They are used on most small and medium sized items.

Shirts, Skins, Scans

5. _____ are used to help keep the pads/skins attached to the furniture. They come in three sizes: small (tan), medium (green), large (blue).

Cotton Twines, Pro Wires, Rubber Bands

6. _____ can also be used to attach pads to the furniture.

Duct Tape, Electrical Tape, Standard Packing Tape

7. _____ this technique is used on small moves that don't require much stacking on the truck. Items are simply set on the floor of the truck and a pad is draped over it. Usually small local moves use this method because it is quick and simple and still keeps the furniture adequately protected.

Drooping, Directing, Draping

8. _____ This technique involves a more thorough process to cover all sides of the items. Each item has a specific technique, used on most long distance moves when the truck is being loaded tightly.

Standard Prodding, Substandard Padding, Standard Padding

9. One of our biggest challenges is to _____ of all of the necessary parts of disassembled items.

Keep Track, Keep Safe, Keep Forever

10. When possible it is best to have the _____ do the assembly and disassembly on each job. This helps avoid confusion, especially on complicated items.

Many Different People, No One, Same Person

11. When keeping track of hardware place parts and hardware in a small _____ or wrap in paper and label what it belongs to.

Locked Box, Ziplock Bag, Burlap Sack

12. When keeping track of hardware transport the parts/hardware in a parts box, a parts bag, or attach it to the disassembled item by using _____.

Wire, Tape, Glue

13. Write/Circle the name of the above item: Tape, Rubber Band, Full Sized Pad, Skin, Warehouse Pad

14. Write/Circle the name of the above item: Tape, Rubber Band, Full Sized Pad, Skin, Warehouse Pad

15. Write/Circle the name of the above item: Tape, Rubber Band, Full Sized Pad, Skin, Warehouse Pad

16. Every household is furnished with a wide variety of small furniture like end tables, coffee tables, etc. Most of these items follow a basic procedure that can insure that each item is _____.

Padded Improperly, Padded Properly, Padded Importantly

17. In general, we need to follow _____ when preparing these items for transport.

Basic Training, Basic Production, Basic Procedures

18. If the item has removable legs we suggest that the legs be removed to _____.

Create Damage, Avoid Damage, Avoid Duration

19. If the item has a _____ it should be removed and packed properly. Otherwise, each item is padded in the same basic way.

Glass Top, Plywood Top, Plastic Top

20. Magazine Racks and Quilt Racks are relatively simple to pad and prepare for transport. Most of these items require _____ pad or skin to properly cover it.

Twelve, Five, One

21. Piano benches are obviously found in homes that have pianos. Most of the time it is best to remove the _____ of the piano bench before padding to avoid breakage.

Arms, Face, Legs

22. _____ that need to be padded and prepared are bed rails, bed frames, coat racks, shelves, floor lamps, etc.

Long Items, Short Items, Medium Items

23. Usually it is best to pack floor lamps in a _____, but occasionally you will pad them.

Sack, Tote, Box

24. Most bookcases, entertainment centers, and wardrobes are bulky and _____ to prepare for transporting.

Impossible, Difficult, Unnecessary

25. Bookcases, entertainment centers and wardrobes have a wide variety of styles and shapes but each of these items have the same _____ when preparing for transport.

Individual situation, Complicated System, Basic Procedure

26. The most challenging bookcase is the lawyers bookcase which can be _____ into several pieces.

Re-assembled, Disassembled, Cut

27. Some entertainment centers are a simple design with and require no disassembly. Some are large and must be disassembled. Regardless, of the style of the entertainment center they require _____ to be transported properly.

Extra-care, No experience, a Fork-lift

28. Wardrobes are unusually large pieces of furniture. Most of them are designed as a one piece, but there are a few that have a _____ piece design.

Two, Green, World

29. Nearly every home will have dressers, chest of drawers, and desks. These items are similar in shape and use the same basic techniques when preparing them for transport.

Basic Training, Basic Studies, Basic Technique

30. There are two basic styles of dressers - double dressers and _____ dressers.

Quadruple, Triple, Simple

31. Either style of dresser can have a _____ attached to it as well, but some do not.
Piano, Mirror, Hot Tub

32. Most chest of drawers contain _____ drawers.
45, 425, 4 to 5

33. _____ and computer desks can present different challenges when preparing them for transport.

Roll Top Desks, Big Top Desks, Rag Top Desks

34. Please put your initials at the top of each page of this test. Give it to your supervisor when your are finished.

Thanks